PROJECTS

Concert | MongoDB, Express, React, Bootstrap, Material UI, Node.js   Fall 2020 - Spring 2021

- Developed a scheduling web application hosted on Heroku in a team of 6 for 7 months to facilitate interaction between tutors and students.
- Implemented a Slack-like chatting interface and login page with data validation using Joi, Material UI and React.
- Implemented the Zoom and Calendly APIs for scheduling logic and email notifications.
- Leveraged MongoDB to integrate with the university's Canvas system and store user information such as username, salted passwords, chat posts, and courses.
- Ensured code quality with unit and integration tests, received feedback from real world users, and stress tested for scalability.

Weather Application | Node.js, EJS, Express.js   Fall 2020

- Developed a weather application in a team of 4 for 2 months using data fetched from OpenWeatherMaps and Bing Maps APIs
- Displays current and forecasted weather information such as temperature, humidity, air pressure, overall weather conditions, and a map centered on user location
- Utilized embedded Javascript and Bootstrap on the front-end entry search and weather display pages and implemented the back-end using Express.js.

Discord Bot | Python, Discord.py   Ongoing

- Collaborated on and implemented a Discord bot hosted on AWS EC2 for personal use
- Incorporated cron-like schedulers to periodically update server information, send custom personal reminders, and fetch cryptocurrency prices.
